News From The Barossa Ark

Last Week's Commissioning Service for Ruth and Richard Ansoul

Last Sunday afternoon a group of around 35 to 40 people gathered to contemplate and bless Ruth and Richard's imminent overseas trip. They enjoyed a time of worship, conversation, blessing and conviviality together in the Ark Courtyard.

We had an opportunity to share a promise from Scripture, spoken to Ruth and Richard, and written down for them to take and refer to on their travels. We also had an opportunity to lay-hands on this couple, with words of blessing spoken by Pastor Andy.

Thanks to all who helped with catering and hospitality. We look forward to hearing back from Ruth & Richard on Sunday the 8th of June as they share and reflect on some of their exploits.

Butterfly Competition

The butterfly is recognised in many cultures, including Christian settings, as a symbol of new life, new beginnings and growth. You are invited to count the number of butterflies that are in the SECOND ROOM (the far room) of the Bakehaus, enter this number on the entry form & place the form in the competition box in the shop. This activity is open to all ages. The first correct entry will win a gift voucher.
