Update from Pastor Greg...

The Parish Office has received some correspondence from Pastor Greg Schiller and here is a snippet from his letter;

'I was in class the morning after my arrival and haven't really caught my breath until now, with a one week Easter break. The classrooms are simple and basic with blackboards and desks. I'm teaching the 3rd and 5th year classes, with 20 students in each class. Now I'm reflecting on some feedback on how to adapt to the level of the class, learning styles and addressing needs and issues being raised.'

If you are interested in reading the rest of Pastor Greg's correspondence, please let Sarah in the Parish Office know and she will ensure you get a copy.

We have also received a thank you letter from the LCA International Mission department thanking us for our recent donation of $986.00 to Pastor Greg. If anyone would still like to contribute financially to Pastor Greg's volunteer service, this can be done via electronic transfer to the LCA International Mission.

This quality full length picture card IS NOW AVAILABLE in a matt finish. You can purchase your picture card for just $2 ... an ideal gift or greeting card, which is well placed to open-up and support conversations about the history and vision of early settlement in South Australia.

Dear Barossa North Lutheran Parish,

I have an antique bellow organ that once belonged to my late mother, Rita (née Heintze, a childhood member of Neukirch church if I'm not mistaken), a wonderful Lutheran woman of faith. While it holds immense sentimental value, I've made the difficult decision to part with it.

I was wondering if there might be a place for it in your church, hall, or any other facility that you are associated with. I would be happy for it to go with one of your parishioners if they can give it a home. While the organ has been in storage for several years, it played beautifully beforehand and I imagine its mellow sounds would continue to provide enjoyment.

I have attached a picture of near-identical organ.

I'm not looking for any compensation and would even be happy to arrange delivery to make the process easier.

Thank you so much for your time and consideration. I would be grateful to have a conversation if this is of interest, or for my details to be passed to an interested party (please contact the Parish Office for these details).

Blessings,
David Brittain
