Barossa Ark News

What will Christmas 2025 look like?

At Barossa Ark, we are starting to reflect on what Christmas might look like this year.

What will the community be looking for in a Christian bookshop such as Barossa Ark? What will the range of Greeting Cards, gift-lines, and children's Christmas books look like this year? We'll share more on this as the year unfolds.

Pastor Richard and Ruth's Return

On Sunday the 8th of June, we look forward to re-uniting with our dear friends and to hear something of their recent faith-filled adventures overseas. Please join us at 3:00pm in the Meeting Room at St Petri for what is bound to be an enthralling account of service, reunions, friendship building, networking and much, much more.

Younger People Involved in Barossa Ark

We are currently investigating the possibility of partnering with some younger people who are more IT savvy than most of us.

We are hoping to have a conversation with Faith College and their VET program to see what may be possible.

Brady Gray was always the favourite son. Overcome by jealousy, his brothers resort to an unforgiveable crime to drive him away from their father's ranch. Brutally beaten and hauled away to an uncertain destiny, Brady chooses to forget the past and start anew. Yet his troubles are just beginning. Falsely accused of assaulting his boss's wife, he ends up in prison. Daring to believe there may be some purpose in his suffering, he's given a chance to turn his life around. At long last, success brings him the opportunity to decide the fates of the men who wronged him. But what man intends for evil, God intends for good. This simple, yet powerful, message is all he has left. Brady must now decide whether acts of cruelty or the hand of providence will mark the seasons of his life.
